

AxCMS.net Vendor Axinom rewarded as Microsoft Gold ISV Partner

The long term Microsoft partner Axinom was honored with gold and silver competencies in the area »Application Platform« and »Cross Platform Solutions« for the year 2011 / 2012

Fuerth - Germany, August 30, 2011 - For the seventh consecutive year, Axinom Holding has been confirmed as Microsoft Competence Partner and was rewarded with gold status for the year 2011 / 2012. The AxCMS.net vendor Axinom was recognized as Independent Software Vendor (ISV) with gold competence. Furthermore, in the areas of software engineering, web development and hosting services Axinom got honored with silver competencies.

For this qualification detailed prove of competence based on reference projects as well as software certification and employee certification is required. Partners with gold competencies represent organizations and associated individuals that have demonstrated the highest, most consistent capability and commitment within a specific Microsoft business solution area.

"We are very pleased with the successful qualification as Microsoft partner with different gold and silver competencies. The rewards underline Axinom's broad range of competencies, starting from counseling and sales services, or software and web development to certified hosting services according to the strict Microsoft quality requirements. Thus, Axinom's customers will always get high quality solutions from one single provider." explains Ralph Wagner, CEO Axinom Holding.
